

STEPHEN DUNHAM.

DECEMBER 22, 1831.

Mr. DOUBLEDAY, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Stephen Dunham, report:

That it is proved to the entire satisfaction of your committee, that the said petitioner enlisted for the term of three years, in April, 1777, in the company commanded by Captain John Shumway, in the first Connecticut regiment, commanded by Col. Jedediah Huntington; which company and regiment were on the continental establishment; and that he served, as aforesaid, the said term of three years, and was honorably discharged, in April, 1780. It further appears to the satisfaction of your committee, that the value of the petitioner's property was, on the 28th day of January, A. D. 1829, four hundred and eighty-eight dollars and ninety cents. Your committee believe that he ought to receive a pension, and have reported a bill accordingly.

STEPHEN DUNHAM

December 22, 1881

Mr. Secretary, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Stephen Dunham, report:

That it is proved to the entire satisfaction of your committee, that the said petitioner enlisted for the term of three years, in April, 1777, in the company commanded by Captain John Shumway, in the first Connecticut regiment, commanded by Col. Jedediah Huntington; which company and regiment were out he continued in the said regiment, and that he served, as a private, the said term of three years, and was honorably discharged, in April, 1780. It further appears to the satisfaction of your committee, that the value of the petitioner's property was, on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1820, four hundred and eighty-eight dollars and ninety cents. Your committee is of the opinion that he ought to receive a pension, and have reported a bill accordingly.